

Specific objectives for improving quality of education provision for students and doctoral training, especially in fields of study and disciplines of science related to priority research areas, taking into account the need to include students and doctoral candidates in research activities and the need to compete effectively for the most talented applicants, including foreign ones, to study programmes and to doctoral schools. The objectives should also take into account implementation of a talent management system.

- ▲ Introducing problem-based learning throughout the University
- ▲ Introducing project-based learning throughout the University
- ▲ Introducing the Oxford method of teaching fundamental subjects
- ▲ Introducing the Harvard interactive method
- ▲ Enhancing dual education in collaboration with employers
- ▲ Acquiring the best candidates for students
- ▲ Strengthening student scientific movement
- ▲ Establishing and maintaining by students the Centre of Creativity
- ▲ Enhancing academic entrepreneurship
- ▲ Development of internationalization of education
- ▲ Performing the role of a leader in the region in the field of doctoral education
- ▲ Significant increase in the effectiveness of doctoral students' education
- ▲ Acquiring prominent doctoral students
- ▲ Increasing the internationalisation of doctoral students' education
- ▲ Involvement of the industry in doctoral students' education