

Specific objectives for devising and implementing comprehensive solutions for the professional development of the university's staff, especially young scientists, in the meaning of Article 360(2) of the Law of 20 July 2018 on Higher Education and Science.

- ▲ Enabling the selection of the best professional development path for an employee and the University
- ▲ Supporting the most active individuals
- ▲ Identifying at the University and providing care and special support to scientific leaders
- ▲ Increasing number of employees involved in competitive and collaborative projects
- ▲ Increasing the ability to acquire competitive and collaborative projects, in particular concerning POBs, and building competence in their implementation
- ▲ Obtaining Horizon type projects, in particular ERC
- ▲ Strengthening academic entrepreneurship
- ▲ Exposition of employees' achievements
- ▲ Increasing the number of visiting professors and employment of prominent individuals in order to build research teams at the University and apply for prestigious international projects
- ▲ Accelerating the development of scientific career and increasing the number of people with habilitation and professorship
- ▲ Preparing young scientists with high research potential
- ▲ Supporting professional development in collaboration with the industry
- ▲ Improving support from the University administration