Dean of the Faculty of Organization and Management of the Silesian University of Technology

We invite everyone interested in the issues of human rights to the 13th International Scientific Conference entitled: "Global contexts of respect for human rights and freedoms".

The conference will be held on the 72nd anniversary of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, December 10, 2020. Although the Conference is held in Zabrze every year, this year's meeting will exceptionally be held on-line. The proceedings will start at 10.00 am, ending is planned for 2.00 pm.

The aim of the meeting is to spread knowledge about the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and its key importance in the modern world, as well as to bring together various subjects of social life - scientists, teachers, students, students, politicians, representatives of the business world, non-governmental organizations and the local community - to take up important issues of respecting human rights and freedoms in their papers and discussions.

Expected fields for papers and discussion:

1. Mechanisms and tools for violence prevention.
2. Protection of human rights in the face of the development of artificial intelligence and cognitive technologies.
3. Shaping and development of civil society in the context of human rights and sustainable development.
